Foreword

Have you ever thought for a moment of the potentialities that are awaiting Millikin? From the academic hall to the athletic field the factors that, in a broader sense, add up to school spirit are lacking. Why? An invisible something tends to keep these quested potentialities in a dormant state. Many times during the past year—Homecoming, the championship conference basketball games, the entertaining Phi Mu Alpha assembly—student comments almost started the trend rolling but all was lost in the ebb of later disinterest.

Because we believe Millikin is representative of the small college and is in the position to lead the way to establish the small college's rightful place in the sun, the pages of this book turn towards progress in the hope that this year's Millidek does not become an obituary of the academic year 1947-48 but the impetus for inspired motivation, leading to unlimited conquests in these years of expanded opportunity for Millikin and other small colleges like herself.

GENERAL
OFFICE
M

President Malone

Foremost in President Malone's consideration this year, as always since his arrival on the Millikin campus, has been sincere efforts toward the improvement and guidance of Millikin. His interest in students has been the impelling motive; Millikin's achievements, the potential goal in a program of expansion and improvement designed to keep Millikin foremost among colleges in Illinois.

His friendly personality, sympathy and understanding have helped guide our students to inspiration and comfort—in scholastic and in Christian living.

OUR DEANS

DEAN MILLER

Dean Miller is responsible for much of the ease with which campus and scholastic tangles are straightened and seeming difficulties corrected. With Millikin growing rapidly, it has been no easy task to schedule classes avoiding student and professor conflicts, while still coordinating the various veteran programs.

He has been invaluable in keeping the spirit and smoothness of Millikin at a high level, while still being a true friend of his students.

DEAN MAXWELL

Dean Maxwell has spent much time and thought in keeping alive the social calendar at Millikin, regulating and advising the various social organizations in her capacity as dean of women. She has given her confidence and assistance to all students, and has been sincere in her serious efforts to aid them. For her unselfishness and willingness to listen to anyone's problems the student body of Millikin is indebted to her.

ADMINISTRATION

VETERANS' OFFICE

You may think you've been in some fast whirlwinds or cyclones, but you ain't seen nothing yet till you hit the Vet's office on registration day or on any other day of the week. The individual doing all the huffing and puffing and keeping the $75.00 a month boys happy is one—Dean Ploenges. "Ploeng" probably hears more T.S. stories in a day, in his capacity as Vet's counselor than most chaplains did in a month handling the boys' troubles in service. Everyone either wants his check or is petitioning to get back in the fold—this the dean handles with the air of a professional diplomat. A vote of thanks from every veteran is indeed in order for the splendid job Dean Ploenges has done on behalf of their general welfare.

To handle the overflow of correspondence questionnaires and proverbial V.A. red tape the dean is assisted by two secretaries, Mrs. Helen McKinley and Mrs. Marjorie Droste. Mrs. Lynn Fischer serves as clerk processing grocery slips.

BUSINESS OFFICE

The business office under the rigid guidance of H. Wayne Gill regulates all the receipts and disbursements of the university. Under these general administrative tasks come such items as salaries, payment of bills, veterans' accounts, housing, and tuition. As a side line the business office operates the switchboard and the student bank.

The secret of the business office's success lies in a staff of capable workers. Mrs. Mary Glasscock is secretary to Mr. Gill and Mrs. Ruth Westfall is bookkeeper. Miss Fern Boland is the assistant treasurer and Miss Gertrude Munch, the assistant secretary. Mrs. Bonnie Goodrich and Mrs. Maye Midkiff serve in the capacity of general clerks.

Hank Gill

GENERAL OFFICE

Information

There could be no better title for this office than "general" because this is where the cogs of administration turn. Almost every administration problem passes through the hands of these six well chosen assistants. Such tasks as preparing transcripts, processing admissions, checking attendance, filing grades, plus other sundry odd jobs that point towards efficient administration are part of the daily business of the office.

Merrill Cameron serves as secretary to the president, Mrs. Sophia Langrand is secretary to the deans, and Jean Coale is secretary to the director of admissions. Mrs. Anna Jean Wait extends help and information at the receptionists desk, while Mrs. Anna Marie Nivin puts the finger on attendance violators. Miss Drennan has the important job of keeping the A's and B's straight as recorder.

ADMINISTRATION

Raymond R. Brewer

There is a warm spot in the hearts of all university students for Dr. Brewer. A friendly person, he has had nearly all students in his religion classes at some time. As director of public relations and field representative, he has travelled to practically every town in Illinois to introduce high school seniors to Millikin.

Byron Kerns

As the new registrar and professor of psychology, Mr. Kerns has already become a sincere and valuable friend to the students at Millikin. His interest, co-operation and ever-ready sense of humor have made him the type of faculty member Millikin has long valued.

Emerson Abendroth

Filling the newly-created position of Dean of Chapel, Mr. Abendroth has given to our chapel ceremonies a new vigorousness and sense of Christian accomplishment. His quiet manner, helpfulness and laughing good humor have already made him one of the most popular of the staff.

Remembering The Senior Class

For three years we've listened to senior classes say goodbye, watched them tear up the place on their senior picnic and generally make the poor college fathers shake their heads in woe. But if you think that was bad—"you ain't seen nothing yet!" The class of '48 is different. We started out with . . . freshmen in 1944 and . . . seniors are graduating. The university has grown along with us. Why we can remember back when—there were no trailers, Dr. Gage handled the history department all by himself, we had our Homecoming dance in the front hall, Campus City was a vacant lot, athletics were a nonentity and the Millikin Men's Club carried on bravely with a limited, very limited enrollment.

During our sophomore year, peace was declared and the fun and excitement we'd heard so much about became a part of Millikin life. Barracks and trailers sprung up like mushrooms, there were faculty increases to accommodate the swelling enrollment, and the class of '48 did their part in putting Millikin on the map. The athletic department, with the help of some of the now graduating seniors, gave Millikin a conference championship in both basketball and baseball, and repeated it the following spring with an undefeated record in baseball. Athletic events weren't the only things we excelled in; dramatics, publications, home economics, debate, and all the other activities received their share of attention from us.

Yes, we're proud of our class. We've been here a long time it seems, and we've had some bad times and some good ones. The bad ones we'll forget—the good ones will mean Millikin to us—Millikin and the class of '48.

Presenting
The Junior Class

Having completed a highly successful third year of college, the juniors are looking forward to the many responsibilities placed upon them as seniors before embarking into the business world and completion of their college careers. They have entered the limelight in social, scholastic, and athletic functions. They have blazed a remarkable trail for the underclassmen to follow. They are narrowing their sights for the target ahead, that of a graduating class. Throughout the past year they have proved their weight in leadership and organization ability.

Jack Hart was the retiring Student Council President and National President of the Presbyterian Young Peoples. Jack and June Figge were the only two juniors elected to Who's Who on the American college campus. Bob Gilason served as homecoming co-chairman and was elected council vice-president. Dan Petty was co-editor of the Millidek. Marilyn Proffitt, Imogene Isringhausen, and Phil Tinch were representatives on the Student Council. Evelyn Timmons served as president of Sigma Alpha Iota. "Dutch" Denton, Dan Healy, and Jack Allen were members of the football team and Toby Althoff was captain-elect of the basketball team and a member of many all-tournament teams.

With their varied background, these future seniors are entirely capable of handling the major events of the Millikin year 1949.

Introducing

The Sophomore Class

Basking in their new-found superiority, the sophomores have shed their greenness, and have advanced in standing as upperclassmen. The first half of their college life has been completed with unusual success. They were new in the activities and organizations at Millikin, but they now hold quite an active part in student campus life. Many of these second-year students have shown signs of becoming promising class and individual leaders. Excelling in the fields of publications, organizations, and athletics, the future looks extremely bright as they take on greater responsibilities.

Being the largest class, the sophomores were well-represented in campus affairs: Lester Baker was elected student body president; Jim Teckenbrock served as homecoming co-chairman; Paul Davidson directed the WSSF drive; John Kluga headed the Indees; and Bob Roach, Bob McDonell, Sterling Boyer, Jo Ann McDonell, Julie Young, Jean Cornwell and John Kluga served on the student council. Don Shroyer was captain-elect of the "Big Blue" football team; Bill Day, Bob Murray, John Malerich, Eddie Root, "Butch" Esker, and Bud Ormand helped pave the way to the basketball championship. In the field of publications, Jim Teckenbrock was co-editor of the Millidek. Yes, indeed, with such participation, great things are to come from the class of "50."

Unveiling The Freshman Class

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

President	Roy Lewis
Vice-President	Bill Thomas
Secretary	Bob Pensinger
Treasurer	George Chilligiris

All the way from Bagdad to Greece to Hawaii and from California to New York to Florida—came our Millikin freshman class. These freshmen, numbering over four hundred, journeyed to Millikin with various goals in mind. Many of these goals have since been changed because the students have matured a great deal from the people they were at registration. They have increased their knowledge, thus strengthening their intellectual character. They have met new friends with whom they have shared both joys and sorrows. They have participated in a varied and extensive social program which helped them to forget some of the tribulations of life at college. With these things as a background, our freshman class has shown a potential strength.

Several individuals of this class have already made outstanding contributions to the school. Roy Lewis, freshman president; Bill Thomas, vice-president; Bob Pensinger, secretary; and George Chilligiris, treasurer, have all helped the class in many ways. In sports Joe Naughton and Scotty Steagall would be listed as the outstanding freshmen in their respective fields of football and basketball. Our freshman class then has leaders in the class room and on the playing field. With leaders such as the ones mentioned and with cooperation of the entire freshman class, the future of Millikin depends.

The Decaturian, the official student newspaper, has been an organ of the university since 1906.

This year, for the first time, the Decaturian operated as the project for the journalism class. Buryl Engleman, managing editor of the Decatur Review, taught the class. One hour's credit is given for work on the Decaturian through the journalism class.

The Decaturian tries to maintain the same standards of accurate reporting and freedom of the press as do the "big-town" dailies.

A teacher-rating poll was sponsored by the Decaturian in February. Rating blanks were distributed to the students to be filled out and returned. The results were tabulated and shown to the instructors before publication. The idea was a new one for Millikin, but not for the university world. The poll was not intended to be a popularity poll, pitting one instructor against another, but rather to show the instructor how well his teachings were illustrated.

The Student Council has had various functions during the year. Among the social functions were the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Christmas Formal, and the Sweetheart Dance, which was a leap year reverse affair this year. A variety show under Student Council sponsorship was presented in January. Various regular matters, such as appointing editors and business managers of the Millidek and Decaturian, sponsoring the WSSF drive, conducting student body elections, appointing Homecoming chairman, serving on the Student Faculty Committee, etc., were carried out. The council was organized into committees including the executive, social, publicity, Sub, and finance committees. Much time was spent considering changes in and additions to the constitution and making definite policies about certain student matters, so that the Student Council might function in the future as a more efficient Student Body Government.

Chapel Committee

Donald Cox, E. I. Abendroth, James Henderson, David Libbon John Fink, Dorothy Morse, Martha Carman.

The chapel committee is responsible for arranging for the religious services held each week. Frequently students assisted in leading the service, and occasionally arranged an entire student-conducted service.

This year the chapel committee was made up of three students selected from the student body at large, three from the Student Christian Association, and three from the faculty. Besides those pictured, Janice Vann, Dr. Brewer, and Dr. Dicks served on the committee.

The University choir and Robert Keener assisted the committee by providing music for chapel. The messages which speakers brought during the year added much to the spiritual life on campus.

The Student Christian Association is a new venture on campus. In its growing stages, it is not primarily a membership organization, but rather a group of students interested in promoting and coordinating campus religious life. The cabinet, made up of officers and committee chairmen, has guided the organization.

The SCA has been interested in the chapel programs, religious emphasis week, and the WSSF campaign. Besides providing assistance for these projects, it has conducted regular Bible discussions. Leadership has also been provided for nearby churches, a community chapel, and many religious services in the area.

Conant Society, honorary organization for outstanding students in the English department, climaxed a very successful year with a spring banquet, which it is hoped will develop into an annual event. Cash prizes for the best poetry and short stories submitted for publication in the Conant Comet were awarded as a feature of the banquet.

Conant sponsored the Clare Tree Major players' production of "Macbeth" in February. The cash receipts from this venture were sufficient to provide the financial awards for the spring writing contest. Sponsoring a similar production each spring has become one of the most student-approved ventures ever undertaken by the society.

The first formal meeting of the group was held at the Pi Beta Phi house. Miss Davida McCaslin gave a short history of Conant, its formation, and its founder, Miss Grace Conant, a former professor of English at Millikin. Standing committees for the year were appointed by Rosie Buchmann, vice-president, in the absence of the president.

The Christmas program, traditionally complete with wassail and holly, was held at the Delta Delta Delta house. Miss McCaslin read Yuletide poetry that has come down to us through the ages.

At a meeting held at the Zeta Tau Alpha house David Felts from the Decatur Herald spoke on his experiences as a contributor to newspapers and magazines.

Spring meetings were devoted to a discussion and exhibition of art, arranged by Mr. Neal, and to a music hour by contemporary artists.

The Independents of James Millikin University is an organization embracing every student, whether man or woman, who is not a member of any fraternal group. The Indees were activated several years ago when the Millikin Men's Association and the WAA banded together into one strong club.

The prime purpose of the association is to provide social functions for students who would otherwise have few outside activities. In the short time the Indees have been an active campus organization, the annual "Sock Hop" and the Spring Formal have become traditional club functions.

This year the group adopted gray and green as organizational colors. Eunice Heideman, a music major, composed the new Indee song. Mr. Glen Smith has served the group as faculty adviser.

KAPPA SOCIETY

Kappa Society and Pi Mu Theta are the two honorary scholastic societies on campus. To be eligible for election to Kappa Society one must maintain a 3.5 average throughout their college career. Pi Mu Theta requires a B average along with participation in school activities.

The Home Economics Club, an organization for those majoring or minoring in Home Economics, had a large membership this year. Among the activities of the club were monthly meetings, demonstrations, and a dinner.

In September a picnic was held in Fairview park for all new members. In October initiation was held in the Oak Lounge for the new members. In November the girls filled a large Thanksgiving basket for one of Decatur's needy families.

A Christmas party for members was held in the Oak Lounge. Games were played and prizes were given. Christmas candies and refreshments were served.

In January Mrs. Helen B. Zoller from Procter and Gamble Company was guest speaker and demonstrated the art of pastry making. Veterans' wives were guests of the club.

In March Mrs. B. Madden from Linn and Scruggs' dress department told the girls of the new spring styles. In April a style show was given for the public, and the girls modeled clothes they had made in the clothing and tailoring classes. Sue Cosgrove was in charge of the models; Doris Greb, refreshments; Janet Westlund, staging; Dona Morine, tickets; Mary Alice Johnson was commentator. All the girls helped with the show.

Pat Reding and Fern Patten were delegates to the State Home Economics Convention.

The year ended with a formal dinner and we were glad to see so many of our alums. It was a very profitable year for everyone.

The Spanish club meets the second Wednesday of every month for the purpose of increasing interest in Spanish language, arts, and customs. The meetings are conducted in Spanish to broaden the members' working knowledge of the language. La Sociedad Espanola is comprised of approximately sixty-five members drawn from students having had two or more years of Spanish. Prominent first year Spanish honor students are also eligible for membership.

A variety of Spanish programs were held throughout the year. Mr. Maurice Bench is faculty adviser.

Der Deutsche Verein strives to present the artistic, cultural and scientific phases of German life through the media of language, customs and music. By giving its members some acquaintance with the fine creations and achievements of the German people, the German Club hopes to play a part in building a lasting and harmonious peace, and in promoting international understanding.

One of the most delightful events of the German Club year was its traditional Weihnachtsfest in which Christmas was celebrated with all the customs and music of Old Germany. "Silent Night" took on added beauty when sung in the language of its origin by the nearly one hundred people attending the meeting. The first year students were guests.

Another highlight of the year was a presentation of the opera "Tannhauser" by vocal artists, records and spoken commentaries. Other programs of the year included the showing of films taken by Dr. Ross in her travels through Germany and Switzerland; a discussion of German universities and education by Dr. Hans Wolff; a wiener roast; a picnic; and an open meeting in April. The April meeting presented a program of German music and literature. A typical German Ratskeller serving German food and featuring German dances and singing afforded a novel bit of entertainment.

Le Cercle Francais is composed of the students of the second and third year French classes. It is affiliated with the Federation of L'Alliance Francaise. The meetings are conducted in French and all members are expected to speak in that language as much as possible.

The program for the year included films taken in France and shown by Mr. Bence, listening to the opera, "Carmen," and plays presented in French by members of the organization. A letter giving a short history and the present day life in France was received and read to the club. Included in the program were French songs and word games which enabled students to improve their use of the language.

A project to collect money for the purchase of milk for the children of France was carried out very successfully. Ted Bradford was chairman of the committee which made the purchases and sent the packages. These contributions were greatly appreciated as indicated by letters of thanks received from France.

The advisers of the club are Miss Bonnie Blackburn and Miss Flora Ross.

TAU CHI PI

First row: Shorthose, Geneva, Althouse, Koehler, Rudin, Bunchman, Probus.
Second row: Clausen, Corrington, Sarver, Billman, Goltra, Shumate, Miss Sparks, Roney, Baker, Nickerson, Burnett, Challiss, Wasson.

Tau Chi Pi is a business sorority organized primarily for business majors and minors, but will accept for membership any woman taking one business course. Active membership status ceases when the student is no longer taking any business course.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Second row: Paine, Schindler, Lewey, Thornton, Spear, Shimer, Pease.
Third row: Libbin, Joys, Davis, Morrison, Logan.

Pi Kappa Delta represents the debators on campus. To qualify for membership, it is necessary to participate in five decisional or three non-decisional debates. This year's members under the supervision of Dr. L. C. McNabb brought unprecedented glory to the followers of "Dan Webster."

ASTON HALL

Second row: Bieler, Comiskey, Bingman, Albert, Monger, Hall, Althouse, M. Ladish, J. Waddell, Mrs. Walker.

Third row: Moody, Poos, Kiernan, Miller, Shorthose, A. Alexander, Howett, Blyholder, M. Waddell, Challis, Forrester, Clausen.

Fourth row: Sanders, Lane, Bergeron, Downing, Schott, Mack, Hara, Patten, Garman, Saxe, Gerken.

Aston Hall brightened that first trying week of registration and nostalgic crowd-loneliness with a record-mixer in the dining room. The welcome mat was out for any one passing by, stag or dated, the chairs and tables were stowed away, and the floor was sprinkled with a can of boric powder borrowed from the infirm. It was loads of fun . . . like that after-movie date in the kitchen at home.

One beautiful Sunday in October, we put on our Sunday Best and entertained a host of Millikinites with an open-house tea, and thanks to Gladys Howett, Aston Hall's own artist and council president, the color scheme enhancing the punch bowl was something to be envied by Jack Frost himself.

Thanksgiving brought an air of formality mingled with a home-spun aroma of roast turkey and cranberries. The usual hub-bub and clatter of a hundred girls descending to the dining room gave way to a soft disturbance of rustling skirts and special-occasion conversations as we entered the dining room mysteriously cozy in candlelight.

Fourth row: Orr, Besch, Zimmerman, Luhr, Shaw, Lindsay, Rudin, Bunchman, Koehler, Howard.

Christmas came, and in addition to the dazzling tree by the fireplace in the living room, a sparkle on several third-finger, left-hands.

On a night in January we tied white satin ribbon to candle sticks in the dining room and honored two starry-eyed brides-to-be, now Mrs. David Libbon, and Mrs. Francis Marsh.

The year's finale was a happy, yet rather tearful, event when we honored the graduating girls of the Hall—the Senior Dinner. To the seniors, no matter how bright their futures may seem, these last years at Millikin probably become a little more cherished and difficult to leave. Going away means leaving some wonderful friends, some gloriously good times ,and Mrs. Walker, an unforgettable housemother.

On the Aston Hall Council were Gladys Howett, president; Amy Alexander, vice-president; Mary Chamblin, secretary; and Betty Ann Mack, treasurer.

Eight girls, including Evelyn Timmons, official representative, attended the SAI National Convention in the Hotel Statler at Detroit, Michigan, during August, marking the 45th anniversary of the founding of SAI.

At the beginning of school this year the SAI's and Phi Mu's gave a get-acquainted party for all conservatory students. This party marked the opening of the conservatory lounge and served as a pre-rush party for both organizations.

Sigma Alpha Iota presented Elizabeth Travis, a member of the Conservatory faculty, in a piano concert on Friday, October 10, in Albert Taylor Hall. The concert was highlighted by the presence of Annis Fuleihan who composed one of her selections, "Air and Fugue on White Keys."

The SAI's presented an Arabian musical skit on the homecoming variety show in October featuring Jacqueline Matthews as soloist.

A series of rush parties followed completion of the first nine weeks of school and was climaxed by the Annual Rose Tea given by the alumnae in the home of Mrs. Byron Merris. On December 13, the following music students were pledged: Marie Hockman, Betty Bissey, Doris Bailey, Virginia Wilson, Jean Syfert, Betty Farley, Carol Orr, Betty Miller, Shirley Smith, Martha Soffas, June Schroeder, Jean Davis, Lila Hall.

During second semester a musical program was given for the official visit of province president, Wilna Moffett. A Vesper Service at Westminister Presbyterian Church, an assembly program, the American Contemporary Musicale, Pledge Recital, Monthly Musicales, and Pan Hel Sing were other events of the year. A Senior Farewell Banquet was given honoring graduates of 1948. Phi Mu Alpha-Sigma Alpha Iota exchanges and the annual Rose Dance, a spring formal, constituted the social activities for the group.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a campus organization devoted to music students and other musicians attending the conservatory and university. Naturally, the members of Phi Mu Alpha are in the limelight of nearly every musical activity. On the campus and in town the Phi Mu's have won a reputation for musical excellence.

On the campus, the Phi Mu's provided music for the Homecoming Variety Show. This included a fine dance band which played two Stan Kenton compositions, a novelty by Ralph Stillwell and a vocal by Archer Logan. The annual Phi Mu all-American show, a program of American music presented every year by the organization, was especially outstanding this year. American music was played and sung by prominent soloists and ensembles in a revue with several novelty and comedy acts. The production was given by all of the actives and pledges of Phi Mu Alpha and was written and directed by members of Phi Mu. The theme of the revue was the age-old conflict between popular and classical music and included a few side references to the Petrillo record ban.

During the Christmas season a group of Phi Mu's sang especially prepared Christmas carols at various places around the campus and in town. Some places included in the caroling were Macon County Hospital, Dr. Malone's residence and all of the fraternity and sorority houses. This is the second year the Phi Mu's have helped establish the Christmas spirit and they hope to make caroling an annual event.

Phi Mu Alpha is acquiring a reputation off campus through the activities of various members who are prominent in town. Archer Logan has been heard many times in Decatur and is soloist at the First Presbyterian Church. Joe Bearden's dance orchestra is becoming well-known among citizens of Decatur, having played a number of club dates as well as campus dances. Other members who are prominent in local dance bands are Jack Eadie, Dick Ritcher and Bruce Hayden.

CONCERT BAND

Under the able direction of Mr. Howard Akers, the Concert Band has taken a prominent place in Millikin activities. Besides helping to spur our football team on, the band took part in the Homecoming pep rally and parade and ended the first part of the year with a Christmas concert on December 14. On April 23 the band participated in a concert and show called "Millikin Musical Moods" at Kintner Gym. This show was sponsored by the Decatur Lions Club. Also on this date, the band gave a concert for all the students of Decatur schools at Kintner Gym. A Spring tour was made by the band to surrounding towns after these performances and a brilliant season was ended by the Annual Spring Concert in May. The student body also looked forward to several assemblies of which the band was in charge.

The band now numbers 80 fine musicians who have done much toward maintaining school spirit as well as furnishing this vicinity with fine music.

Without the capable and enthusiastic direction of Mr. Akers, the band would probably not have accomplished the many things that it has this year. The band has just recently ordered new uniforms for next year and Mr. Akers still has high hopes of securing even more equipment which will enable the band to do even finer work in the future.

CHOIR

The Millikin choir, under the able direction of William R. Fischer, has had a very successful year. The greatly increased enrollment now numbers 115. The choir has faithfully appeared in Chapel throughout the year, as well as presenting the Messiah at the Masonic Temple in December and the annual Spring Concert in Taylor Hall.

The choir trip, most important event of the year, was again cancelled due to the housing shortage, but in its place the choir took short one-day trips to neighboring towns. These trips were enjoyed by all, but everyone is still anticipating the traditional choir trip in the near future.

An additional honor was paid to the choir when Mr. Fischer, baritone, won the preliminaries and finally represented the State of Illinois in a nation-wide contest at Carnegie Hall on February 22.

Mr. Fischer's sense of humor and understanding nature toward the choir were an inspiration to all who worked under him. Without his loyalty and interest, the choir would not have been so successful in all that they undertook. A great deal of credit should be given to both the choir and Mr. Fischer for their outstanding contribution.

The Council is composed of the president and rushing chairman of each of the five sororities. Dean Maxwell serves as advisor to the group.

The work of Panhellenic consists mainly in planning the fall rushing schedule and supervising the rushing period in regard to regulations set up for the benefit of all organizations represented. All matters concerning Greek organizations are settled by the women's Panhellenic Council and the men's Interfraternity Council.

Panhellenic's purpose is to bring about co-operation between campus groups. A reception for all new women students was the first of the council's activities last fall, and Panhellenic will start plans for a dance sponsored by the sororities and fraternities. As is tradition, this spring the council presented the annual Pan-Hel sing, which has become one of the major campus events.

The Alpha Chi's started off a busy year by having Mary Louise Irish elected vice-president of the Senior Class, one of the only two girls who held class office this year. Other prominent members included Elizabeth Schmalfuss, a sophomore, one of the feminine leads in the Town and Gown play "Ten Little Indians," Pat Stone serving as vice-president of W.A.A., Pat Reding as vice-president of the Home Economics Club, and Julie Young as secretary of the Student Council.

At the beginning of the year a tea was given to introduce the new house mother, Mrs. Byrd Forsyth, to students and faculty. Other social events included a picnic for our adviser, Mr. Ralph Allan, and a twin sweater dance at the Chapter house. At Homecoming time a dinner was held in honor of the alums.

Christmas was a busy time for all. The Christmas Formal preceded by a buffet dinner at the chapter house highlighted the holiday season. On December 14 a party was given for children from the Welfare Home.

The Chapter has also been interested this year in bettering inter-fraternity relationships on campus and as one of our projects, we gave a slumber party for other Greeks on campus.

The spring formal was held in April at the Scovill Country Club with Ben Bradley's Orchestra playing. The year was brought successfully to an end with the annual recognition banquet in honor of the senior girls.

Three large light bulbs shone out through a rainy homecoming weekend presenting a bright welcome for Tri Delta alums who returned to the chapter house to see many old college friends. The weekend was truly a success with house decorations receiving honorable mention and the float, "Trim Wesleyan," winning second place. The traditional chapter events, such as the Pledge dance, Thanksgiving Eve. Founder's Day Banquet, the Tri Delta winter formal, and the Christmas Pine Party for the alliance and mothers' group, made up the first semester's activities highlighted by a Christmas party for the girls from the Welfare Home.

The second semester activities included a spring formal and an all-campus benefit bridge party for the scholarship fund; all senior women attended the Pansy Breakfast in June. Those who announced engagements and coming marriages walked under the heavily laden Pansy Arch which has become a part of commencement week at Millikin.

Julia Magnuson represented Tri Delta in dramatics and Jo Anne Kastrup was in Pi Mu Theta. Jo Anne was also chosen for membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Others were active in various committees, intramurals, and departmental clubs.

A blinking bunny and a huge top hat took first place float honors for Pi Beta Phi for the fifth consecutive year. The slogan "Millikin's Magic Touch-Downs Wesleyan" opened a social year featuring the Pi Phi "magic touch" in every way.

The semi-annual pledge and initiation dances were held at the chapter house and in fall the pledge class entertained pledges of other Greek societies at a precedent-shattering "jeans tea." In October the chapter gave a banquet for various faculty members in honor of Mr. Byron M. Kerns, faculty fraternity advisor.

Three senior members, Beverly Stickel, Emmy Lee Buchmann, and Rose Marie Buchmann were listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Beverly was in the court of the Homecoming Queen and president of the Panhellenic Council. Emmy was treasurer of Conant and Promotion Chairman for Homecoming, and Rosie was vice-president of Conant and Pi Mu Theta and treasurer of W.A.A.

Beverly McMillan served as society editor of the Decaturian and Mary Alice Johnson was circulation manager. Mary Alice was also secretary-treasurer of Pi Kappa Delta, debate society. Ann Daigh was editor of the S.A.I. magazine and Nancy Cannon vice-president of the Spanish Club. Katherine McKeown served as business manager of the 1948 Millidek.

Shortly before Christmas, "Rowdy," a purebred dachshund-fox terrier, arrived at the Pi Phi house and completely took charge, living up to his name in every conceivable degree.

Biggest events of the season, as always, were the Orlando Christmas Formal and the May Dinner-Dance at Scovill Country Club with Johnny Bruce's orchestra furnishing the musical background, and ending another great Pi Phi year.

The Zetas began a very busy and successful year with an Open House Tea for the new house mother, Mrs. O. S. Cardwell, on October 5. This was followed by another Open House Tea on October 9, for all the sororities and fraternities.

The pledge dance on October 15 began the first of several dances given by the Zetas in the school year. The theme was a Baby Ball honoring the youngsters of the sorority. On December 15 the Christmas formal was held at Scovill's Club House, using Candy Canes as a novel theme of decorating.

Homecoming, on November 1 was an outstanding event for the Zeta Tau Alphas for it was the marking of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Tau chapter at Millikin. Patsy Shumate, a Zeta senior, was chosen Homecoming Queen by Jimmy Dorsey. The Zetas previously had received the Outstanding Booth trophy for the W.S.S.F. carnival.

June Figge and Joan Meisner were listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Joan Meisner was also co-editor of the Decaturian, President of Pi Kappa Delta, honorary debate fraternity, and 1st Vice-President of German Club. June Figge and Marcia Shimer served as Cheerleaders. Patsy Shumate was president of W.A.A. and of Tau Chi Pi. Cornelia Klinefelter was Secretary of Tau Chi Pi.

The Zeta Active dance started the social events of the second semester on March 2. On May 8, the Spring Formal, to the theme of "Temptation," was held at Scovill Country Club with Bill Oetzel's orchestra.

Activities began for the Theta U's with a hayride in October in honor of the pledges. This was followed by a pledge dance at the Staley Club House.

On November 9, Theta Upsilon, along with the other sororities on campus, held an open house to which all Millikin students and faculty were invited.

The alumnae, actives, pledges, and mothers met in December for their traditional Christmas party.

Founder's Day was celebrated on January 21 with a dinner in the Decatur Club. At this time an announcement was made to the alumnae that at the end of the first semester the charter of Gamma Alpha chapter at James Millikin University would be withdrawn. This decision was reached by a vote of the National Council upon recommendation by the active chapter.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council is made up of three members from each fraternity along with the respective faculty advisers. Dean Miller acts as representative for the administration. The purpose of the Inter-Fraternity Council is to promote good will and to bring about a better understanding on matters concerning the fraternities and the administration. Its powers are limited to advisory capacity except on subjects pertaining directly to the Inter-Fraternity Council. The only officers of the Council are Treasurer, George Gilmore, and Secretary, Richard Griffith.

In the Spring of '47, the Council sponsored a banquet in honor of the basketball team. The dinner was highly successful, followed by an equally interesting address by Coach Leo Johnson of University of Illinois. This function is to be an annual affair sponsored by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

One of the main events of the year was the Inter-Fraternity Ball held in March, 1947. The three fraternities and Phi Mu Alpha joined in planning and attending the dance held in the Masonic Temple. The dance was financed by each fraternity on the basis of the number of men in each. By popular request the Ball is to be given each year in the spring term, as was done this year.

The Council also keeps in constant contact with other Inter-Fraternity Councils on other campuses. It keeps abreast with new ideas in matters concerning Greek organizations. This fall an exchange dinner was held at the Decatur Club with the Inter-Fraternity Council of Illinois Wesleyan as guests. The purpose was to facilitate better understanding between the two schools. It was agreed that rivalry was to be placed on a purely competitive basis and we take pride in saying that it was accomplished successfully. "A lot of friends can be made over a cup of coffee" and, keeping that in mind, the Councils at Illinois Wesleyan and Millikin Sponsored a "coffee hour" before the basketball game so that the students from both campuses could become better acquainted.

"Co-operation plus" was accomplished this year and the Council looks forward to continuing this progressive leadership for the unification of Greek interests.

Because of one of the most successful rushing seasons in history, Alpha Lambda chapter of Delta Sigma Phi opened the year with a record membership.

The traditional pledge dance in the fall started the social season with a swing, or is it "swat." Not to be outdone, the pledges retaliated by giving a hayride for the active chapter, complete with cider, song, moon, and blazing bonfire.

A Mexican Christmas was the surprise theme of the winter formal at the Orlando, providing a novel and exciting way to distribute the dance favors. St. Patrick's Day brought the first record dance of the new semester with decorations, theme, and spirit in keeping with the tradition of the Irish. The May formal was a complete success—bringing to a perfect close another successful Delta Sig year.

Don "Coon" Shroyer was selected on the all-conference gridiron team and was further honored by being elected as captain for the 1948 grid squad. Besides Shroyer, Bill Smith, Don Ferrette, Joe Naughton, Les Blakeney, Jess Snoke, and Bill Tiffin starred on the football team.

In basketball, Toby Althoff, high scorer of last year's championship squad, and Bud Ormand, Bill Day, and Dutch Esker sparked the Big Blue in their conference title defense. Brother Althoff was selected on the Beloit tournament all-star squad.

Delta Sigma Phi is also taking the lead on the Decaturian with Denny Pease as editor and Jim Williams as business manager.

The big emphasis is being laid on building for the future. So far, extensive repair and remodeling work has been done on the house, a complete paint job being the main project during the summer vacation. Financially, the chapter is in better shape than ever. The "Spirit" of Delta Sigma Phi, that nebulous something that has made it outstanding among campus organizations, is once more running at a level comparable to that of pre-war years.

Yes, 1948 was a good year for Millikin and also a good year for the Illinois Delta Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The first dance of the season, held at Scovill's with an "Esquire" theme. The highlight of the first semester, however, was the "Winter Mezzo" held at the Orlando.

The Sig Alphs contributed greatly to the sports of J.M.U. Captain Dutch Denton, with Red Johnson, Bill Dickinson, Bill Rotz, John Keck, and Duane Palmer, did much to bring about the Big Blues' somewhat successful football season. As cooler winter and basketball came, Bob Murray, Dale Long, John Malerich, and Don Williams began pounding the hardwood for their Alma Mater. Track season brought Jim Alexander, Tom Harlan, John Keck, Duane Palmer, Don Williams, and Bill Dickinson into the middle of Millikin's sport scope. The greatest of all American sports provided Earl Malerich with an opportunity to display his talents at the plate and in right field.

Homecoming proved to be a good occasion for the Sig Alphs. Jim Teckenbrock and Bob Gilason were the student Homecoming co-chairmen. The credit for the victorious house decorations must be given to Dan Petty and his staff.

Jack Hart and Don Williams were selected by the University for "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Jack was given further honors by being elected president of Millikin's Student Council. Sigma Alpha Epsilon has excelled in the field of publications, placing Dan Petty and Jim Teckenbrock as Co-Editors of the 1948 Millidek.

The members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon have enjoyed the year of 1948 and are looking forward to even more pleasant years to come.

1947-48 has been one of the top years in Tekedom.

Beta members became active previous to the beginning of the school year by attending the TKE National Conclave at Champaign, Illinois, on the fourth of September.

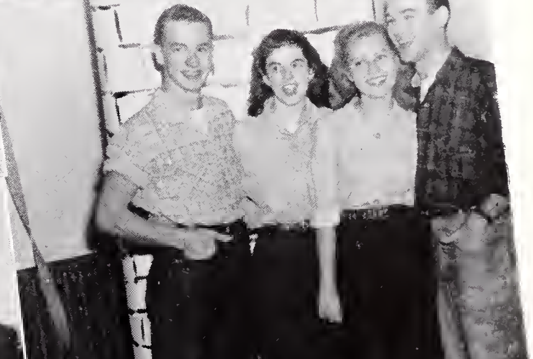
Beta's Open-House ended the wonder and suspense aroused about the interior of the recently remodeled chapter house. Approximately 250 visitors were guests. The extensive remodeling enabled Beta to accommodate a larger number of out-of-town men as well as making possible more week-end social events. I. L. Johnson, social chairman, was in charge of the big open-house activities.

A mechanical scarecrow greeted the guests at Beta's traditional autumn dance, the Harvest Hop. Janet Westlund and Jerry Wiedenkeller did an impromptu dance. Another highlight of the "Hop" was the crowning of Bob King with a pineapple pie by Maribeth Ward.

In the field of sports, especially on the football field, the old TKE iron-bound gridders ploughed up the practice field and trampled their opponents to win a glorius victory, namely a 5 and 1 record. The mighty pledge team, featuring Al Sarran and Bruce Belmer, was untied and unscored upon. Bill Krigbaum was intra-mural manager.

The ultimate achievement in Teke social events was the "Snow Ball" which was held January 17 at the Decatur Club. This winter formal was highlighted by Beta escorts presenting their dates with an orchid and a gold loving cup.

The misty atmosphere and costumes brought forth the typical mood of the French Cafe party with Bob Garvin and Nelson Calhoun as featured entertainers. Another event of the evening was a French Can-Can dance by Gene Cotton, Kenneth Westenhaver, and Jim Meikle.



Athletics

"Ill-health, of body or of mind, is defeat
—Health alone is victory."
Sir Walter Scott.

Football

Athletic Director Marshall Wells ended his fifth year as gridiron coach for the Big Blue with fair success. Within one week after school started, there were 75 gridders on the field working out under his guidance. With Wells directing on the sidelines and Captain "Dutch" Denton on the field, Millikin came through with a record of three wins, four losses, and a scoreless tie with their old rival Wesleyan, to place sixth in the Little Nine Conference.

For the fourth consecutive year the Big Blue successfully defended their basketball crown. Ralph Allen took over the vacancy left by Don Lindeberg last year and moulded Althoff, Steagall, Williams, Shea, and Root into a well balanced machine that won several thrilling ball games by the margin of a few points. National recognition was denied the Big Blue though, as they dropped a three point decision to Southern at Carbondale District Tourney.

Frank Poneta, former J.M.U. athlete, stepped from the ranks of player to that of coach as he took over the management of Millikin intramural activities and direction of the Big Blue diamond squad. Eight lettermen remained from last year's conference championship team.

The resignation of Marshall Wells as Director of Athletics was announced last February. He accepted a position as football line coach at the University of Colorado. Ralph Allen, highly successful in his first year at J.M.U., was named as his successor.

Coach "Marsh" Wells and Captain "Dutch" Denton

Millikin's 1947 football team was directed from the bench by head coach Marsh Wells, while guard Herschel "Dutch" Denton was the Big Blue's leader on the playing field.

"Dutch" was known for his untiring spirit and enduring drive which made him a valuable link in Coach Wells's line.

CARTHAGE CLOSES UP

"FLYING THROUGH THE AIR——"

Once Over Lightly

By FORREST R. KYLE

Millikin’s 1947 football season can best be characterized by a remark made by Head Coach Marshall Wells after the completion of the campaign.

“On some Saturdays we could have beaten any team in the conference,” Wells observed. “And on others, we couldn’t have whipped our ‘B’ team.”

This evaluation is reflected in the record of three victories, four defeats and one scoreless tie.

The Big Blue’s inability to follow up one winning performance with another kept the team struggling all through the campaign to climb over the .500 mark. A defeat in the last game obliterated the last chance.

Despite the so-so outcome of the season, the Big Blue at least managed to escape defeat at the hands of its three oldest rivals on the schedule.

Millikin won a heart-stopping 14-13 victory over Eastern Illinois State College of Charleston, knocked off Illinois College again 18-7, and then was held to a scoreless tie by Illinois Wesleyan before a big Homecoming crowd.

Millikin was captained by Herschel (Dutch) Denton, junior guard from Belleville. His successor, elected after the final game, was Don Shroyer, sophomore halfback from Lovington.

Shroyer, running and passing from the tailback position, was the workhorse of the club on offense and his efforts were rewarded by election to the all star team by the conference coaches.

Two magnificent goal line stands featured the Millikin home season. One, unfortunately, prevented the Big Blue from scoring against Wesleyan and forced the 3,500 Homecoming fans to watch a scoreless tie.

The other defensive gem stymied Eastern Illinois State College for three downs inside the three yard line, and the gun ending the game went off as E. I. lined up on the six inch line for its fourth attempt to score what would have been the winning touchdown.

Millikin opened its schedule against North Central, defending champion in the conference, and held a 6-0 lead at halftime. Two blocked punts in the third quarter led to two North Central touchdowns and from there on it was easy for the upstaters.

The Big Blue had Eastern whipped, 14-0, going into the fourth quarter as the result of a Shroyer to Joe Naughton pass and a scintillating 60-yard punt return for a touchdown by Shroyer. Joe Venturi kicked both extra points. Eastern roared back in the fourth quarter and tallied twice, once on a 60-yard punt return by Bob Smith. But Lerton Krushas blocked one of the conversion attempts and it spelled victory.

Carthage surprised Millikin with a 12-6 trimming, both the visitors’ touchdowns coming on pass plays covering 60 and 65 yards. Millikin also tallied via the air route, Shroyer pitching to Naughton for a 54-yard touchdown.

Millikin sloshed through the mud and rain to down Illinois College, 18-7, Shroyer bucking over for one touchdown and passing to Bob Etter and Naughton for the other two.

Then came the scoreless tie with Wesleyan. The Titans never gave the Big Blue any uneasy moments, but stopped the lone scoring threat engineered by J.M.U.

Western Illinois State College of Macomb had too much speed for Millikin and made off with a 27-13 decision. Shroyer plunged for one Blue touchdown and passed to Jack Allen for the other.

The Blue found Elmhurst a willing victim on a muddy field in the last home game, bowing 12-0. Shroyer loped 75 yards through the muck with a punt for one touchdown and Bill Dickinson plunged over for the other.

Northern Illinois State College of DeKalb wrecked J.M.U. in the season finale, winning 26-6, after Shroyer’s touchdown in the third quarter had pulled Millikin up within one point, 7-6.

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS

The Big Blue, co-champions of the College Conference of Illinois, wound up one of their most successful seasons with 18 wins and 7 losses for a season's average of .720.

During the 47-48 campaign the Blue cagers pounded the hoops for 1414 points, to come up with a game average of 60.6.

Scott Steagall contributed the most points to this total by dropping in 299 markers in the season's play.

Millikin started off the season with a rush, rolling over Principia 73-42 and Elmhurst 60-43, but then hit the skids and fell into their one and only losing streak. They lost to Normal, Eastern, Southern, and Cape Girardeau in succession.

They did not hit the victory trail until they won over Arkansas State in a charity game at Taylorville.

The Big Blue then entered the Beloit tournament and eliminated Ripon and Washburn before bowing to Beloit in the tourney windup.

Returning home, the Millikin cagers took revenge for their previous loss to Southern by giving them a 71-52 drubbing. The Blue lengthened their victory string to four in a row before losing to Illinois College 52-43.

After this defeat the Big Blue ran up their biggest win streak of the season by taking the remaining eight games. They toppled powerful Eastern, North Central, Western, Wesleyan, Principia, Lake Forest, Augustana, and Carthage.

In the second Principia game Ralph Allen's cagers ran up their season's largest win margin by crushing them 85-46.

Millikin, by virtue of the conference championship, entered the N.I.A.B. district playoff at Carbondale. In the first game of the tournament the Big Blue had an easy time defeating Quincy College, 63-39, but then lost out when Southern won the championship game by three points 61-58.

Althoff and Steagall brought honors to the Millikin campus when they were selected by the Collegiate Magazine as the members of the all Mid-West basketball team for minor colleges. Althoff was also selected as one of the first five on the all-conference team, and Williams and Steagall were on the second team.

Cheerleaders Raise Team Morale

In this most successful athletic year, the task of the cheerleaders has been all-important, keeping morale at its highest whether in sight of victory or defeat. Jack Dunnell and his antics were famous throughout the conference. June Figge and Jack were the returning cheerleaders while the others were added by student ballot.

W. A. A. Sweater Girls

Senior jackets are given to members of W.A.A. who have qualified by acquiring 1500 points throughout their four years' participation in intramural events. Sportsmanship is considered a sound basis for the award. The girls receiving jackets this year, are pictured on the left.

W. A. A. Girl

Gladys Howett, senior Independent from Springfield, was chosen W.A.A. girl for this year. Gladys served as president of W.A.A. and four years as an intramural manager and participated in all the activities of the organization. The basis for the choice of the W.A.A. girl is determined by scholarship, service to W.A.A., leadership, skill, other campus activities, sportsmanship, and personality. Gladys was selected by a committee composed of the adviser, officers, and the intramural managers of W.A.A. and the editor of the Millidek.

W. A. A.

The Woman's Athletic Association membership is open to any woman in school, and provides opportunity for participation in social and athletic activities. The intramural program is the most important and prominent feature of the physical education program. This year the teams vied with each other to come out on top in speedball, bowling, basketball, volleyball, deck tennis, and badminton. Dorothy McClure heads the group as adviser.

Hail the Queen!

HOMECOMING 1947

Patsy Shumate, Zeta Tau Alpha senior from Decatur, reigned as queen of the largest Homecoming in Millikin's history. She was chosen by Jimmy Dorsey and crowned between halves of the football game by President Eber Spence of the Millikin Alumni Association. Five girls, one from each social organization on the campus, made up her court.

The zeal of the student committees, headed by co-chairmen Robert Gilason and James Teckenbrock, and the co-operation of alumni produced a spirit of enthusiasm from the Friday noon pep assembly to the closing dance of Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra. Hard work and planning produced the finest parade of floats ever sent down the streets of Decatur. Caught by the spirit of making the 1947 Homecoming the greatest yet, every group outdid previous house and float decorations in clever, original ideas. Judging was difficult with so many excellent entries. The cup for house decoration went to Sigma Alpha Epsilon; to Pi Beta Phi, the float trophy.

The giant pep-assembly served as the kick-off to Homecoming Events, followed by the traditional Freshman-Sophomore scraps. Friday night's bonfire, Talent Show and final pep-rally set the scene for the spotlighted gridiron clash with our traditional rival Wesleyan.

Highlighting all events of the 1947 Homecoming was the first appearance of a name band on the Millikin campus, namely Jimmy Dorsey. One thousand couples jammed the Armory for the closing event in a successful Homecoming weekend.

Fifteen Millikin students have attained one of the highest honors given college students all over the United States, that of being listed in the national publication of the book, "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." This book lists students from all over the country who have proved themselves outstanding in scholarship and in school affairs, and have shown promise of maintaining a successful place in future life.

June Figge, Joanne Kastrup, and Don Faith are also listed in the publication but did not have pictures taken.

TOWN AND GOWN

TEN LITTLE INDIANS

Ten Little Indians, a mystery play by Agatha Christie, was presented by the Town and Gown Players on November 7th and 8th, 1947.

Under the able direction of Dr. L. C. McNabb and assisted by Herbert Joys and Joan Meisner the play fulfilled its purpose of holding the audience in the utmost suspense right down to the final gun.

The spring production brought forth William Shakespeare's immortal classic, Julius Caesar. Dr. McNabb accomplished the huge task of whipping his army of Gown Players into the grandeur days of Rome, with the assistance of Joan Knight, Creighton Lewey, and Joan Meisner.

Mention should be made of the successful job the production staff did in both plays. The behind the scene cast was as follows:

Willard Helme, electrician; Robert Hodges, Walter Roney, stage managers; Amy Alexander and Pauline Blyholder, costuming; June Figge and Marion Menk, properties; Jarold Talbot, Gladys Howett, and William Tull, scenery design; Mary Shimer, Marnita Kendall, business heads; and Doris Cope, head usher.

YOUR CITY IS YOUR BUSINESS:

Most of you will become business and professional men and women either in Decatur or in another city. As you become identified with your community, you will find that your city is your business, as well as the profession or other occupation by which you earn your livelihood. You should, and will be expected to contribute your thinking and your efforts to the handling of those matters which will determine the character of the community in which you earn your living and establish your home.

You graduates who choose Decatur for your home town are welcomed for your youth, your enthusiasm, your approach to our community problems, and your willingness to work toward their solution. At this commencement period of 1948, we as "old citizens" invite you to turn your thoughts to the following matters of Decatur's "unfinished business" . . . matters which have a vital effect upon the character of the future Decatur. We urge you, first, to become informed about them, then to join other citizens in working on them for a Greater Decatur in which to live and do business.

Conservation of Lake Decatur as the source of the city water supply and as a recreation center

THERE IS NO FINER GIFT THAN A FINE American WATCH

Watches rate high among "gifts that last"—particularly fine American watches—Hamilton watches. After a long wartime absence, Hamiltons are beginning to appear again. We'll be glad to show you those we have—or if we don't have the model you want, to call you when it arrives.

The Gibson Girl's
Grandaughter at J. M. U.

1901—an important year in the history of Decatur because Millikin University was founded. In 1948 we find the third generation attending classes, and lo, just like 47 years ago the young ladies are perfect examples of fashion in "Gibson Girl" waists and skirts.

And now, as in 1901, Linn & Scruggs is the Quality Store, catering to the co-eds—for Linn's has served this community since 1869.

A Milestone in Life

Graduation from Millikin marks the successful closing of one phase of life. It symbolizes completion of well rounded preparation for the business of living and heralds the setting-up of new goals to be achieved—goals that each must choose for himself. This education has sharpened and polished your "tools for living." May you use them well and achieve the success of your own choosing.

CHARACTER

That which we call character is a reserved force which acts directly by presence, and without means. It is conceived of as a certain undemonstrable force, a familiar or genius, by whose impulses the man is guided, but whose counsels he cannot impart.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH OF GROCERIES PLEASE!

Sister — that's a lot of food!

...but did you know that Decatur people at CASH VALVE will buy at least that much food this year along with ANOTHER one hundred thousand dollars of Decatur rent, clothing, taxes, and amusements!

And where did this money come from? Why, from all over the world...from the sale of CASH·ACME Automatic Valves... engineered to solve industrial and household pressure problems.

CASH-ACME Automatic Valves

A.W. CASH VALVE MANUFACTURING CORPORATION

For twenty-five years, manufacturers of quality pressure reducing and regulating valves, relief valves, automatic pressure controls for hot water space heating systems, etc.

We're often asked, here at Staley's just WHAT we make from corn and soybeans. In a sentence or two it is this: from corn we process a long list of starches, sugars, oils and feeds for industry, the farm and the home. From soybeans we obtain soybean oil and soybean oil meal.

When you see the Staley name on a package of starch or a can of syrup at your grocer's you can be sure that in that package you will find an unusually high grade product that will serve you well.

Ask for these Staley products by name:

STALEY'S CUBE LAUNDRY STARCH
CREAM CORN STARCH
STALEY'S TABLE SYRUPS (4 flavors)

Are You Listening?

YOU'VE had loads of good advice! But the going still will be rough unless you learn and practice Rule One in Book One:

Be easy to get along with!

Practice every day—at home, with friends, on the job—and you'll not only get places, but also will have a full, enjoyable life
